Project Name:
QashqAI Voice

Project Type:
Independent Cultural-Digital Initiative

Founder:
Siefollah Aslani

Project Statement:
QashqAI Voice is an independent cultural-digital initiative dedicated to the documentation, preservation, and ethical use of endangered and underrepresented languages and cultural narratives through modern digital technologies.

The project operates independently, without institutional, governmental, or political affiliation. It is guided by principles of transparency, cultural dignity, ethical artificial intelligence, and public accessibility.

All activities are conducted in alignment with international cultural, academic, and digital ethics standards.

Date of Public Registration:
2026-01-06